

SMP- JUNE 2012, ACTIVITIES

The Special Marshals engaged in various activities during the month of May these include patrol, traffic control, public enlightenment, as well as involvement in rescue operations across the country.

The State Coordinator of Ekiti Special Marshals, Dr Adegboyega and Officer AA Awodi had a television program "Ensuring Safety on the Roads" on Ekiti Television.

In the spirit of "Road Safety Everywhere", the Unit Commander and Officers of RS11.24 Ondo Unit Command gave a lecture on Traffic Management" to Redeemed Volunteer Group of the Redeemed Christian Church of God, Ondo Province 2.

The Special Marshals along side with the Road Safety Club members of RS2 and RS 3.3 paid visits to Road Crash Victims and presented gift items in Olabisi Onobanjo University Teaching Hospital Sagamu and Federal Medical Centre Jalingo respectively.

Special Marshals in RS 8.3 produced 2012 calender and sent 10 copies to Special Marshals and Partnership Department in RSHQ while the Special Marshals in RS8.31 Ankpa paid a sensitization visit to the Palace of Atta of Igala.

NYSC/RSC

The NYSC/RSC members delivered Lectures on Road Safety activities to pupil in schools while motor park rallies for motorist were carried out at various parks and locations across the country.

NYSC/RSC in RS 1.1 produce and released the first edition of their magazine tagged "Safety First Magazine".

A NYSC/RSC member Ayo - Alake Rebecca Omonike EB/118/1766 in RS 9.2 Ebonyi single handedly constructed and donated ten (10) Traffic Control Stands for use in the State.

Road Safety Club in Preston International Schools Akure paid an educational excursion to FRSC Office in Akure. Sagbama NYSC/RSC in RS 6.41 organized debate competition for four (4) Secondary Schools in Sagbama.

A directional Bill Board was erected at Japka Roundabout, Effurun - Warri by the NYSC/RSC in Uvwie/Udu Local Government Area in RS 5.21 Warri, and six (6) Warning Signs were produced and erected in RS 6.4 Bayelsa.

Five Road Safety Clubs were established in MC Intire Secondary School, Gateway Academy, Eleyo High School, St Patrick Grammer School and Oba Akinyele memorial high School in RS 6.3 Akwa - Ibom, RS 8.2 Ekiti and RS 11.3 Oyo respectively.

NYSC/RSC in RS 9.2 Ebonyi donated ten (10) Reflective Jackets for use by staff of the command

Radio and Television programs were equally carried out in Jos, Benue and Bauchi while RS 12.3 Yobe continues their radio program "WAKA FOR ROAD" every Tuesday.

PARTNERSHIP:

Various items were donated to Sapele Command by various Organization: Five (5) security doors by Building Accessories Nigeria Limited, Set of Furniture for the Unit Command office by Bob - Oshodin Organization Nigeria Limited, Rug/Curtain for the Unit Command office by Eagle Line Transport Limited, Two (2) Horse Power LG air conditioner, four set of Table and Chairs for offices by Ceaser Construction Company and a Generator Set (ELEPAQ HD 5000 DXE) by Uyi Technical Nigeria Limited.

Justice Menson is sponsoring the 2012 FRSC National Essay competition with the theme "MY YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW". Entries are currently being received. It is open to only currently serving NYSC/RSC members.