ROAD SAFETY TIPS THIS YULETIDE SEASON

The yuletide season brings Christmas and New Year tidings, family gatherings and festive celebrations all the way through to the New Year. From available records the month of December constitutes one of the worst months for road traffic crashes with more crashes happening in this month alone than in the rest of the year. Why is this so? Apart from the rise in traffic density, there are increased cases of drunk driving, drunken pedestrians, over speeding, overloading, dangerous over taking, crashes related to poor road and weather conditions and lots of other issues making road crashes more prevalent during the season.

As much as we don't want to bring the happy spirits down but we want to alert the public in our efforts to preserve life and reduce road crashes. The following safety tips are germane to ensure the holiday period is safe for motoring:

- Always prepare yourself before travelling by ensuring that vehicle is fit for journeys you intend to embark.
- Think about your journey before you leave and incorporate rest breaks to combat fatigue.
- Always observe safety rules in case of a breakdown.
- Leave extra distance from vehicles in bad driving conditions (harmattan haze).
- All occupants of the cars should wear seat belt.
- Never ever drink and drive or drive under the influence of drugs.
- Obey all traffic rules and regulations.

We wish everybody a happy holiday season and hope you will all commit to road safety ideals during this challenging driving period. Remember road safety is not just important during yuletide season; it is important all year round.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
