8. "The Corps Marshal has demonstrated rare, but in the history of transformation of Government offices. To turn his office environment nationwide to a fully automated office with well trained and highly motivated staff is commendable. The leadership in Nigeria should identify people like Mr. Osita Chidoka country wide to effect changes in our dare country. He has done enough in FRSC. Nigeria needs him in one of the challenging sectors so that he can make this kind of revolution and transformation especially in the transport and maritime sector of our nation. May Allah guide him and bless him for what he has done in
