Eid El Maulud: FRSC To Motorists, Avoid Recklessness, Imbibe Patience, And Resist The Temptation To Exceed Legal Speed Limits On All Roads

The Federal Road Safety Corps called on the motoring public and other road users to avoid reckless driving, exhibit more patience, and resist the temptation to violate stipulated speed limits on all roads in the country. The call came as part of sensitization programmes targeted at reinforcing and consolidating existing efforts and strategies of the Corps to ensure a safer motoring environment most especially during Eid El Maulud celebration.

The Corps Marshal while celebrating the season with Muslims faithful, revealed that a crash free mobility is a possibility in our nation and the principal road use attribute that could lead to zero crashes on our roads is discipline and absolute compliance with established traffic rules and regulations. According to him, a disciplined driver saves lives.

According to the CM "When pedestrians comply with the use of walkways and pedestrian bridges where provided, when drivers desist from taking intoxicating substances before mounting the wheels, when they observe and obey the traffic lights and all speed limits, when they regularly maintain their vehicles, avoid overloading, dangerous and reckless driving and become more tolerant with other road users; the carnages on our roads would have been reduced drastically."

The Corps is admonishing the motoring public to imbibe safe road use attributes as they commute across the country, the Corps has observed that a key characteristics of the ember period over the years is an upsurge in traffic volume, as road users become impatient.

Wishing the entire Muslim community a hitch free celebration
